Our goal is to educate Every One

We provide free advice and support to unemployed members of the community looking to get back into the work place, regardless of age, experience or qualifications. Educate All has been established to support anyone from the community who needs help getting back into the workplace by:

- Supporting those who are unemployed.
- Helping people returning to work after a break.
- Advising those newly arrived in the Canada, helping them through their job search.
- Helping recent graduates taking their first step onto the career ladder.
- We support people back into the workplace across a huge range of industries and professions
